

THE LIVING LIBRARY

11th May 15:00 - 16:30 CEST

Whose Knowledge?

Othoring knowledge, people and power.

Anselmo Matusse | Researcher, University of Cape Town
Maria Tengö | Researcher, Stockholm Resilience Centre (SU)
Per Olsson | Researcher, Stockholm Resilience Centre (SU)
Ingela Ihrman | Artist

9th June 15:00 - 16:30 CEST

How to Listen?

Co-shaping an exchange of narratives and learning together.

Viktoria Walldin | Social Anthropologist, White Arkitekter
Michele-Lee Moore | Researcher, Stockholm Resilience Centre (SU)
Johannes Heldén | Artist and Poet
Maria Thereza Alves | Artist

17th June 15:00 - 16:30 CEST

How to Act?

On allies, ambassadors and actions.

Joana Moll | Artist and Researcher
Stellan Vinthagen | Researcher, Gothenburg University
Stefania Barca | Researcher, Uppsala University
Katarina Pirak Sikku | Artist
Kalle Brolin | Artist

The Living Library is a conversational space that takes place in the intersection between fiction, action and research. Over a series of three online conversations facilitated by Pernilla Glaser, academics, activists and artists will gather to share stories and unpack understandings of climate justice.

To learn more and register for the Zoom link please visit <https://tinyurl.com/3ubdfem5>
Registration is free and you are welcome to attend all three conversations or any of your own choosing.

Climate Change
Leadership

Stockholm Resilience Centre
Sustainability Science for Biosphere Stewardship

Uppsala konstmuseum

